

Subject Yearly Overview 2023-2024

Subject: English Y9	TOPIC	COMPONENT	Notes: Why are you delivering this topic at this time of year?
Autumn 1	SPaG - National Curriculum Focus Welcome back- English Introduction	Noun Phrases Modal Verbs and Subjunctive Mood Suffixes - Nouns and Adjectives to Verbs Relative Clauses Commas Grammar and Punctuation Spelling -Mistakes Possessive Pronouns	This will be an engaging subject that will get the students interested at the beginning of a new term.
Autumn 2	SPaG – Continuing Autumn to Winter Celebration: Recognising differences in others, regardless of colour, cultural background, gender, sexual orientation, ethnicity, religion, or disability.	Pronouns & Possessive Pronouns Adverbs to Show Frequency Prefixes Colons in Lists Subordinating Conjunctions and Clauses Word Families Spelling -Mistakes Christmas: Christmas: The Christmas Frog Differentiated Reading Comprehension	To continue with this topic, for students' knowledge and understanding. People who are more accepting of others and their differences can help to shape a society in which everyone strives for equality.
Spring 1	Reading: How to Train your Dragon: Children will use this book to infer information about the Vikings. They will investigate the books' main theme of not judging a book by its cover and friendship. Beowulf: This story will enable children to further develop their understanding of the Viking era and learn more historical	Writing: Non- Chronological Reports: Children will research the Anglo-Saxons and Vikings using various sources to help create a detailed non-chronological report about this time in history. Imagery poems: Children will write imagery poems based on the Beowulf story. These	They will investigate the books' main theme of not judging a book by its cover and friendship. Children will study this imagery poem during Bonfire Night celebrations and will work on their intonation, enthusiasm and volume when performing sections of the poem to the class.

	vocabulary from this time. Fireworks- Enid Blyton: Who were the Anglo-Saxons: Children will use the non-fiction text to focus on retrieval, text structure and technical vocabulary?	poems will centre around our own imaginary monsters.
Spring 2	Hobbies: Reading and comprehension (leaflets, web pages, time tables and surveys)	Read a selection of non-fiction text. (reading) A01, A02, A04 {twinkle} Functional Skills Entry Level 1,2,3	It will encourage students to conduct independent research, analyse data, and evaluate language. Additionally, to arrange grammatical concepts and information to aid in the coherence and cohesion of writings.
Summer 1	Letter Writing Unit: Identify and extract the main information and detail from short explanations. Make requests and ask clear questions appropriately in different context	Functional Skills Entry Level 1,2,3 (writing) Format for informal letters. Informal register. Reply to letter from friend/relative. Format for formal letters. Reply to job advert	The holiday season is the ideal time to practice writing thank-you notes to people who have given you gifts. Additionally, extensive practice is required to master the functional skills' writing component so that all components are addressed.
Summer 2	Presentation and research: Project of their choice. Use of the internet and computers to help develop the skills and produce the presentation. Use of YouTube to give students more background information on their topic.	Self-confidence skills. Independent & self-management learning skills. Resilience skills ICT use of power point to produce the presentation Researching and independent thinking skills to put together a specific presentation.	A piece of work is the creation of a power point presentation. able to carry on a conversation, for example, establishing Q&A. S&L will be evaluated at various points, with each student receiving questions and feedback. Literacy and ICT abilities will both be evaluated throughout the unit. working independently A piece of work is the creation of a power point presentation. As a brief test, the final unit review.