

 In  student  parliament  on  the 16th  January,  we  discussed

 World  Book  Day  which  is  on  the 7th  March  and  voted  on the theme  - we'll  let  you  know  what  it is soon!

 We  did  decide  that  there  should  be  hot chocolate  and marshmallows  though.

 We  also  discussed  children's  mental health  week  and  what expressive  arts  activities  we  could  do.

 There  was  also  a suggestion  of a college  sleep  over  in the school.....  Kris?
