

Isabel :

Issy helps with buses and is always happy to help adults and her peers. She has really stepped up this year and is a lovely role model to others and she made an outstanding contribution to her class PE sessions (archery) throughout last term as a natural leader. Issy is also now willing to work with other adults throughout the school such as the OT and Speech Therapist. Well done Issy!