Aspire, Believe, Enhance, Achieve

Newsletter No: 19 – 19th June 2020

So who said a drop of rain would be good for the garden??? I hope that you are all drying out!

First week of our increased phased provision and the pupils seem very pleased to be back. They have all coped very well with the new arrangements. If you are still keeping your child at home, their class teacher will continue to send home work for them. We love seeing what you have been doing at home on Seesaw:

Our staff have also been doing some home learning over the past few weeks through professional development. Ellie has been setting them some work on different themes. The latest one was on Equality and Equity. These are some examples of what they have been doing:

As always, stay safe.
