Ain't no mountain high enough – TOPAZ

Please choose at least five different activities to complete during this half term. I will be looking at content, research, presentation, handwriting, effort and what your homework can teach the rest of the class. Most importantly, enjoy discovering new facts and sharing them with the rest of the class.

Research famous deserts, mountains or rivers throughout the world.
How are these used to help humans? Are they a source of shelter? Used for food or transportation?

Can you draw a graph to show the highest mountains in the world. Think about your axis, how big will the scale need to be?
