What an exciting week we've had in school! Over the last few months, Amethyst class have been working closely with the Ribble Rivers Trust, housing trout and watching their life cycle. Today, they have been on a trip to learn all about the classification of river minibeasts and exploring river landscapes. Well done Year 6!

We also had the first round of our in-house Dodgeball Tournament, organised by our Sports Captains, Willow and Harvey. This will continue next Wednesday, supported by Mr Olloman.

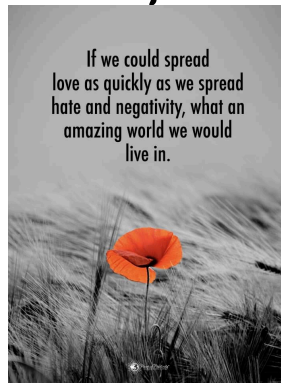

Have a wonderful weekend,

Take care,

Mrs Chambers

Our Gospel Value this half term is ...

Love

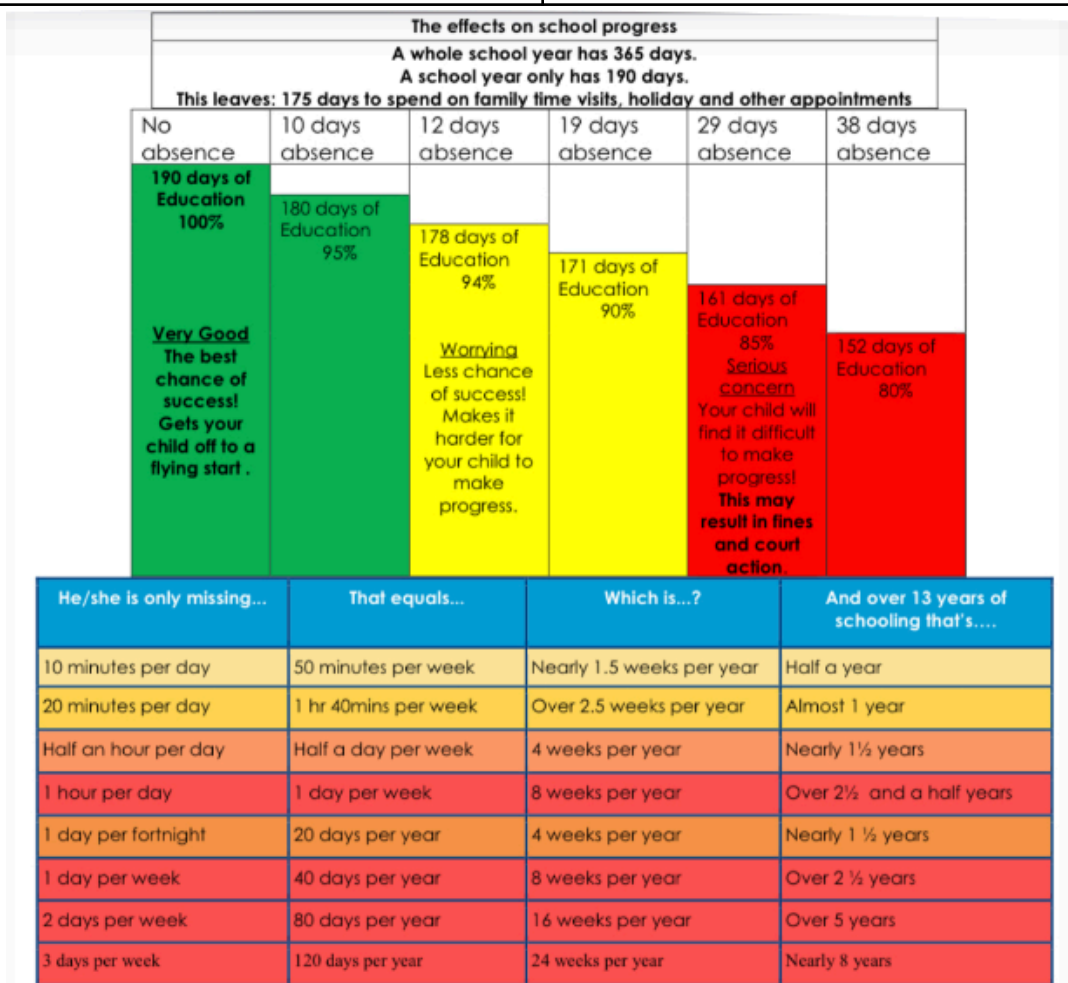

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails. Corinthians 13:4-8)
