

WARTON ST. PAUL'S WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

FRIDAY 16TH OCTOBER 2026

MRS HODGKINSON'S

WEEKLY NEWS

What a fantastic and action-packed week it has been across the school! Sapphire class had an unforgettable experience on their exciting trip to Helmsore Mill, stepping back in time to explore local history, while Amethyst showed brilliant sportsmanship and energy at the Hockey Festival hosted by Carr Hill High. Mid-week, our BSYW Worship brought everyone together with an uplifting performance—complete with vibrant jazz hands—to retell the parable of the Lost Sheep. It has truly been a wonderful week of learning, teamwork, and reflection. A extra special well done goes to Sapphire class for their exceptional attendance and enthusiasm throughout! Have a lovely weekend,
Mrs Hodgkinson

OUR CHRISTIAN VALUE IS ...

Walking in the footsteps of Jesus calls us to demonstrate genuine respect for all people, recognising every individual as a unique and valued creation of God. By embodying Christian values such as empathy, kindness, and humility in our daily interactions, we honour the dignity of others and build a community rooted in love and mutual understanding. Whether through active listening, offering encouragement, or standing up for those in need, showing respect reflects the heart of Christ's teachings and serves as a living testimony to his grace.
