

WARTON ST. PAUL'S WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

FRIDAY 22ND OCTOBER 2026

MRS HODGKINSON'S

WEEKLY NEWS

What a wonderful and busy week it has been! Our Topaz class represented the school brilliantly at the Netball Tournament hosted by Carr Hill High, showing fantastic teamwork and determination throughout—a huge thank you to the Carr Hill PE department for organising such a fantastic afternoon. Back at school, Topaz also led a thoughtful and inspiring Worship, sharing how we can show respect for the outdoors and care for God's creation. They spoke passionately about how they explored these themes during their recent trip to Marton Mere, helping all of us reflect on our responsibility to look after the world around us.

Have a wonderful week break and we look forward to seeing you all Monday 2nd November 2026.

Take care

Mrs Hodgkinson

OUR CHRISTIAN VALUE IS ...

Walking in Mother Teresa's footsteps means showing deep respect and kindness to everyone. She demonstrated this respect not through big gestures, but by personally caring for those who were poor, sick, or forgotten. By offering small acts of love—like holding a hand or sharing a meal—she showed every person that they mattered. Following her example means treating everyone we meet with dignity, patience, and compassion.
