

Name:

Date:

WALT: Punctuate the end of sentences appropriately.

These sentences do not have any punctuation at the end. Can you add a piece of punctuation to each so that they are correct?

1. Blowing fiercely, the wind gusted through the frost-covered valley
2. What time does the film start
3. What I wanted was out of stock
4. This is the best present ever
5. The ornate, mahogany wardrobe was covered with dust
6. Sit down now
7. How do spiders spin their webs
8. Hidden beneath the autumnal leaves, the fox watched a rabbit slowly approach
9. How dare you speak to me like that
10. Can I borrow a rubber
11. Why is your P.E. kit on the floor
12. You made me jump