LO: To explore statements, commands, exclamations and questions.

Statements - Statements are sentences which tell you something. They end with a full stop.

Questions - Questions are sentences that ask you something. They usually end with a question mark.

Commands - Commands are sentences that tell you to do something. They are often urgent, can be very short and start with a verb.

Exclamations - Exclamations are sentences that begin with 'what' or 'how'. They are full sentences, include a verb and end with an exclamation mark.

Underline each sentence in the correct colour or write what each is an example of.

1. Is it cold outside?
2. How wonderful that it is nearly Christmas!
3. Go to your room!
4. "What an evil young man!" shouted Anne.
5. It is great fun going to the park.
6. There are only 500 white lions left in the world.
7. Should you really annoy your brother by hiding his toys?
8. Get down from the roof!

Have a go at changing each sentence into a different sentence type.

It is cold outside. → Is it cold outside?
