

REMEMBRANCE DAY

Archduke Franz Ferdinand

The assassination of Franz Ferdinand (Archduke of Austria) sparked the outbreak of World War One.

Trench Warfare

Many battles were fought using trench warfare.

Long ditches were dug in the ground. Soldiers lives in the trenches and sometimes climbed out to attack.

A famous example of trench war was the Battle of the Somme.

The Treaty of Versailles

World War One ended at 11am on 11th November, 1918 – this became known as Armistice Day. The leaders of the USA, Great Britain and France met in Versailles to decide what should happen next. The agreement was called the Treaty of Versailles.

Terms of the treaty included:

- Germany had to accept total blame for starting the war.
- They could not join the new League of Nations.
- Some places Germany used to own were taken from them.
- Germany were banned from having an army of more than 100,000 men and from having any submarines or an air forces.
- They could had to pay 132 billion gold marks (Germany money) to repair the damages of war. The country became very poor because of this.
