

CHALLENGE YOURSELF!

KS4

	READ 	WATCH 	DO
CORE (SCIENCE WEEK) 	Read the news report from New Scientist magazine about ecosystems and the impact human activity is having on them.	Watch the programme on how we are working to protect and restore some ecosystems: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4xhCfvbe3jw	Write a letter to your local MP, or produce a magazine article, on the importance of conservation and what needs to be done to protect the an endangered ecosystem of your choice.
FOUNDATION (HISTORY WEEK) 	Read this article on Elizabeth I's early years: Click here to read How did this shape Elizabeth as a Queen?	Watch the film Elizabeth: The Golden Age. This is available on Netflix currently. Click here to watch	Visit an Elizabethan stately home in your local area: Astley Hall and Rufford Hall are two examples in the local area. Click here to search for Elizabethan stately homes
CREATIVE (COMPUTING WEEK) 	"The best Gaming Laptops on the Market"- Read all about the best laptops and the high-tech options available: https://bit.ly/3eYEpWZ	"The Secret Rules of Modern Living Algorithms"- Mathematics professor Marcus Du Sautoy reveals the hidden world of algorithms: https://bit.ly/316UstD	"Computer Crafts"- Create your own model of a computer, this could be with craft items, boxes that are ready for recycling or any other creative ideas you have. 