

Visual Arts

Examination Information

Exam commences in January with a choice of exam questions from AQA.

Students will then have a 12 week window to complete the exam preparation (mini project with research, raw photos, edits, experiments and design ideas)

In May students will be in the classroom for a 10 hour session to complete their final piece

Useful Links

Pinterest Google Look at past work from students at school
Exemplar materials produced by teacher and work displays on the wall

Revision Information

DO NOT fall behind with the prep work in your sketchbook. If you keep on track and prepare for the exam you will do really well in this subject Lunchtime and after school on a Monday are good opportunities to work with your teacher and get in some extra time
Exam Worth 40% of GCSE Mark

