BADGER WOOD

This week we have started a new English adventure all about bubbles! We were transported to the beach by some magic bubbles, which set our imaginations going to help us write our adventures. We did lots of work to involving conjunctions, adjectives and description to our writing. Our stories are taking shape and sound amazing!

In maths we have developed our fraction knowledge, looking at $\frac{1}{2}$ and $\frac{1}{4}$ of shapes and numbers. We discovered lots of different ways to show our fraction knowledge and understanding. Very busy classroom filled with great fraction vocabulary.

We have enjoyed developing our art work over the weeks, just a few pastel techniques to add the finishing touches to our explorers' scenes.

The Badgers are very excited that the new starters will be joining us next week and look forward to getting to know everyone!

FARTHING WOOD

In English this week we have moved on with the Flotsam book. The photos that the boy had developed from the old camera he found at the beach have revealed that other children, since the Victorian era, have also found the camera. This led to many questions about who they were and what their background stories were too.

In Maths we have been working hard on the learning gaps in our CLIC/SAFE tests as well as taking the maths 'Planning a Trip' project further forward in our groups. Mr Muir (Maths teacher from Malton Secondary School) visited us last week to see how we were getting on - and was very impressed with not only the maths skills we were using on the project, but also how enthusiastic and confident we were at being able to explain and verbalise our mathematical skills and knowledge.

We have also carried out a science test that we have planned about insulation...but the results aren't in yet so that will have to wait until next week!

KEEPER WOOD

In Keeper Wood this week we have been looking at the explorer Christopher Columbus. The children have been researching all about his life and what he achieved. We have written non-chronological reports about him using different subheadings to organise our work.

We have finished looking at Mount Everest by completing a wonderful sketch of the mountain. We then added pastels in black, white and grey to add texture, shade and tone. They look really good!
