

A photograph you have taken of a friend. You have not asked their permission if you can share it.

A personal opinion which discriminates against someone else or a group of people.

A revealing photograph of yourself.

A post about a conflict you have had with a friend or someone in your family.

A photograph or information which reveals personal information about you or someone else. For example, name, age, date of birth, address and the school you go to.

A link to a video which could cause hurt, upset or worry.

A post which describes something a friend has told you in confidence and you think will get a lot of likes.

A post which expresses hurtful opinions, inappropriate language and tags other people in it without their permission.

A photograph
you took of a beautiful view.

A link to a reliable website which gives fact-checked
information about a topic which really interests you.

A post that supports a reputable and official charity or organisation whose work is important
to you.

A photograph which celebrates a personal achievement and in which personal identity is protected.

A link to an age-appropriate
video which will make everyone who sees it smile and feel good.

A clip of an age-appropriate
music video which you are enjoying dancing to at the moment.

A post which encourages others to be kind online.

A photograph of your pet in which no
personal information is revealed.