

Session 5

To develop a sense of place and to want to protect the woodland

To manage own risk while exploring the woodland

To identify different tree types

To use mud and natural environment to create a tree sprite

To create a story about their tree sprite

Session 6

To feel a sense of belonging within the woodland

To measure using body parts

To begin to tie a clove hitch knot

To use lashing and frapping to create a picture frame from sticks

To create a picture of their forest school experience

Forest School

Weekly
Thursday
Sessions

Forest School

Objectives

Session 1

To learn about the vertical structure of the woodland.

To manage own risk while exploring the woodland- movement

To work with a partner to make a friendship bracelet

To begin to establish a connection with the woodland area

Session 2

To explore the woodland using senses

To manage own risk while exploring the woodland- boundaries

To use alliteration to establish a forest school name

To begin to establish a connection with the woodland- badge making

Session 3

To learn why our woodlands are special

To manage own risk while exploring the woodland

To understand that being different is something to celebrate

To begin to tie a clove hitch knot

To use frapping to cover stick with wool

Session 4

To begin to appreciate the woodland environment

To manage own risk while exploring the woodland

To use senses to investigate trees

To trust others and to gain their trust

To use natural materials from woodland floor to construct a village for little