A brilliant week in school this week as we celebrated the 30th anniversary of SCIENCE WEEK. Across school we have been learning about the science week theme this year of TIME - what is it? what does it mean to you? Some amazing conversations in Year 5 about this! On Friday this week we welcome Hutton Grammar scientists in to Year 5 and we welcome Mr Smith in to Y6. Mr Smith is one of our parents who works for the police in the digital forensics unit and he will be talking to the children about STEM and using forensic science in investigations.

We have a new email for any communication you have for Mr Jackson our SENCO - it is senco@whitefield-pri.lancs.sch.uk. If you are currently having communication with Mr Jackson, you will notice the email switch from today.
