Message from Ms Stockley

Dear Families,

Eid Mubarak and Happy Easter!

This term has seen some incredible developments at our wonderful school. In fact, I sometimes have to pinch myself when I walk onto site in the morning to check that I really am awake. The climbing frame really is there! This week it has been an absolute joy to watch the children exploring and playing on the equipment at break and lunchtime. But in truth, they are more than just playing. I listen to them explaining and organising, giving themselves a pep talk, encouraging and cheering each other on; I watch them problem solve, pick themselves up to have another go and being brave. It truly is a gift and once again, I need to say how grateful we are to Hounslow Local Authority for helping the children's dream playground to become a reality. When we return after the Easter Break, we are going to trial a STAY AND PLAY session in the playground on Friday afternoons. With the summer approaching, this will be a lovely way to wind down the week, play with friends and just have some fun together. Our only stipulation is that children must be supervised by a parent or responsible adult, so that everyone can stay safe. On other days, we will return to closing gates at 3.40pm.

Speaking of community and the lovely relationships we have built with each other, thank you to The Friends and parents from our Muslim community who put together an awesome Eid Celebration event yesterday. I definitely ate way too much food and the saffron tea and Somali coffee were new treats for me. It was an enormous privilege for all of us to be invited to share in this celebration, knitting together our community even more securely. I am rather hoping that this becomes a standing item in our school calendar for the future. That sense of sharing with community was in evidence earlier on this week, with Year 5's Easter Festival Assembly showcasing how Easter is celebrated far and wide around the world. On that note, I will do my best not to eat too much chocolate over the holiday period (no guarantees on that I'm afraid).

Relax and enjoy your holidays,

Miss Stockley and The William Hogarth Team

STARS OF THE WEEK

Stars of the week - WB 30.03.25

Together

To all our stars: It is lovely to see your happy faces light up the school

Class	Star(s) of the week	Description
Mondrian	Arthur	This week, Arthur has shown togetherness by being inclusive during outdoor playtime, showing appreciation for his peers' home learning projects, and eagerly supporting his classmates in computing, which is always wonderful to see. He has been working very hard on his handwriting, which he is proud of, and has stepped up his competitiveness in earning more house points for Dragons. Well done, Arthur and keep it up!
Matisse	Stefan	Stefan shows kindness and patience when working with others. He helps to include others into games in the playground and especially loved playing football today. In class he is excellent at taking turns in group work and treating people fairly.
Monet	Runa	I can always rely on Runa to be a great team player. She tries her best in every task and often contributes really well when working in a group. She attended a dance festival this week as part of a PE sports trip and was a committed member of the team. Keep it up Runa!
Shonibare	Maan	Maan is a wonderful team player. He works incredibly well with anyone both in the classroom and in the playground. His teamwork skills are exemplary and he is a key figure in ensuring everyone is getting along. He always has a smile on his face and spreads joy to others. His presence truly brings our class together.
Riley	Arya	This year, Arya has grown in positivity! She is not only becoming more positive for herself but also with others. Arya has really supported her partner and offered advice and suggestions on their project for Teen Tech. Yesterday, in swimming, Arya demonstrated such fantastic ability and confidence, it was such a pleasure to see. She is also one to immediately comfort someone when they are feeling down and that makes me really proud. Well done, Arya.
