STARS OF THE WEEK

Stars of the week - WB 25.11.24

Resilient

To all our stars: It is lovely to see your happy faces light up the school.

Class	Star(s) of the week	Description
Mondrian	Arthur	Arthur has shown immense resilience this week by being patient, hardworking, and positive! He has challenged himself in phonics and impressed both staff and classmates. Arthur also showed fantastic enthusiasm and learning during the science museum trip and has also tried out a new recipe in cooking! Wow! Well done, Arthur!
Matisse	Saphira	Saphira has really improved her resilience this week when encountering more challenging learning. She has tried to include similes into her writing to make it more descriptive. I have been so impressed!
Monet	Tonirose	This week I have seen such a change in Tonirose's presentation in her books. I am so proud of how she has worked so hard to ensure her books are neat and tidy. This has helped her with her learning too as she can use her book for revision and to support her learning. I have been showing off her books in the staffroom and all of the teachers agree that there has been such an improvement. Congratulations!
Shonibare	Ricky	Ricky is the definition of a star student. He continuously works as hard as he can, constantly striving to improve despite being an extremely high achiever. He is a wonderful example that it's always possible to improve when the work is put in. I've also been impressed with his generosity, often sharing his things with others in the class.
Riley	Haa'run	Haa'run has been really impressive this week with his resilience in lessons. In particular there have been some tricky concepts for him to grapple with in maths and he has shown determination and a persevering attitude. I really like seeing this side of Haa'run and I love seeing when the pieces fall in to place for him and the satisfaction he gets from succeeding. Keep being resilient and persevering with tasks and everything will fall into place. Well done!

National Grief Awareness Week

2nd – 8th December 2024

National Grief Awareness Week is about bringing people together and raising awareness of support that is available to those that are grieving.

Bereavement (losing someone important to us) affects everyone in different ways, and it's possible to experience any range of emotions.

After a loss, people may feel all, some or none of these emotions:

- Sadness & depression
- Shock or disbelief
- Numbness & denial
- Panic & confusion
- Anger or hostility
- Feeling overwhelmed
- Relief
- Mixed feelings

There is no right or wrong way to feel following a loss. Some people may seek help immediately by showing their emotions and talking to people, others prefer to deal with things slowly, quietly or by themselves. Help and support is available at any time.

Support is Available
