

We are an inspiring learning community with high expectations, where all feel safe and happy and everybody has the opportunity to unlock and realise their potential

Message from the Headteacher

Yesterday I attended the Hounslow Education Partnership AGM with other headteachers from the Borough. I am always so proud to share news and information about our school community and this week was no exception - it was wonderful to talk about your overwhelming generosity and strength of spirit, particularly during periods of challenge. Thank you for your donations of food, personal care products and clothing for the Upper Room in Hammersmith – please have a look at the photograph on Twitter: @hogarth_the

Thank you also for the amazing start with this year's Amazon wishlist – we have already received several books from our '100 Books' lists including:

- The Accidental Pirates, voyage to magical north
- Skellig
- After the War: From Auschwitz to Ambleside
- Agent Zaiba Investigates: the missing diamonds
- The Silver Sword
- Small in the City
- The Storm Keeper's Island
- Black and British: a short, essential history
- Stuart Little
- Artemis Fowl
- Squishy McFluff
- The Snow Spider

The list will be updated each week and our aim is to collect the 100 Books for each year group by the end of the year. The list for your child's year group is on both our curriculum page and your year group page on the website. We will be encouraging the children to read these books throughout the year, both in school and at home. The link for the wishlist is:

I was shocked during the summer holidays to see Cancer Research posters with the startling statistic that 1 in 2 people in the UK born after 1960 will be diagnosed with some form of cancer during their lifetime. I know that certainly, for myself, members of my family have been affected and that this is also true for other staff and members of our wider community as well. This is why we are once again holding an event for MacMillan – a charity that supports sufferers and their families. I apologise that it was cancelled this morning due to the downpour, but we are opening our doors this afternoon instead and I look forward to welcoming as many of you as possible for a cup of tea or coffee and a treat.

I leave you with this thought and my wishes for a wonderful weekend.

"Generosity could be as contagious as the zombie plague as long as enough people were willing to be carriers"
(Jonathan Maberry).

An important message to parents/guardians from Hounslow's Director of Public Health, Kelly O'Neill:

"We're currently seeing a significant increase in the number of COVID-19 cases in our schools across the borough which is causing a great deal of disruption for teachers, parents/guardians and children. Approximately 50% of our cases in Hounslow involve children under 19, with the majority of those cases involving 10-19 year olds. My team is doing everything it can to help the school community stop this on-going transmission as quickly as possible. But there are some important, practical, steps everyone can take to enable children to keep learning in the classroom and to stop the spread: I would urge you to please keep testing twice a week using 'rapid' LFT tests if you don't have COVID-19 symptoms. If you do have COVID-19 symptoms, please get a PCR test as soon as possible. Regular testing is the quickest way to identify if you have the virus so that you can self-isolate if required. I would also encourage you to continue wearing a face covering if you can, especially in crowded areas, including on public transport. Together, all of these things will help to reduce transmission in the wider community.

"The NHS vaccination service has asked secondary schools across the borough to obtain consent from parents/guardians to vaccinate 12-15 year old children. Remember - it's not too late to get vaccinated yourself, so if you haven't yet come forward for your first and/or second COVID-19 vaccine, please take a look at our website: www.hounslow.gov.uk/coronavirus where you can find lots of detailed information as well as your nearest vaccination site. If you have any questions, please get in touch with me and my team at: publichealth@hounslow.gov.uk We're here to help."

Stars of the week

To all our stars: Your teachers recognise your ambition to succeed. Well done!

Class	Star(s) of the week	Description
Mondrian	Matthew M	Matthew has demonstrated his ambition to learn and succeed this week by displaying excellent listening skills. He is a great role model to the rest of the class and I am very proud of him. Well done Matthew!
Matisse	Hassan	Hassan is always excited to challenge his mathematical learning. He has high ambition and loves to share his ideas with the class, expressing himself clearly.
Picasso	Katie	Katie loves writing and has worked so hard at using ambitious language and ambitious description. What a pleasure it is to read your work!
Blake	Leo	Leo has been so ambitious this year and has worked hard in and out of class. He has achieved a lot so far in year 4 and will continue to do so in his new adventure. We will miss you when you leave Leo, but good luck.
Shonibare	Jonathan	Jonathan has demonstrated his ambition and determination to succeed and learn in maths and has worked really hard this week. Well done Jonathan.
Riley	Oliver	Oliver has been very ambitious this week in regard to his research on influential human rights figures. His research about Nelson Mandela really showcased his attempts to delve deeper into Mandela's history.

Attendance and Punctuality

Year 6 Residential Trip

Year 6 had an amazing residential trip to Home Farm, in the New Forest. We spent a week enjoying the farm yard lifestyle and adventuring in the woodlands. Every morning and afternoon, we took part in duties such as; feeding the rabbits, checking the horses and mucking out the pigs! We also ventured to the motor museum and saw many classic cars and rode the monorail. We all had a great time and enjoyed every second.

Year 3 Picasso

Year 3 Picasso Class, have settled in so well to the school year. We are working very well together and learning so many new things. Most importantly, we are being Ambitious this week, especially with our Writing and our Maths! Well done Year 3 Picasso class.

Please support us at home with home reading and homework.

Thank you

Home reading is very important to us and we are asking our parents and carers to sign and comment on our reading skills every night.
Thank you

We have been reading the hilarious book "Bad Nana", and that is why Mrs Luciani brought us back Lemon Sherbets from Home Farm! They really are MEDICINAL!
Honestly!

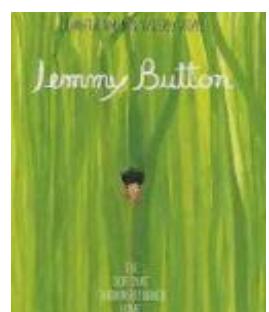

We are also learning about Dance in PE. We are putting together Space moves!

Look at our accurate throwing and catching practice we are learning in PE. Not as easy as it looks!

This week in English, we are finishing our drafts of our first Narrative, based on Jemmy Button. We are writing in paragraphs, and using ambitious language.

Online Workshops

Separation and Anxiety Thursday 16 Sep 1pm - 2pm	The Separation and Anxiety workshop is going to look at how to help children separate from care givers and how nurseries and children's centres can support this important transition, taking into account the current situation (Covid19). There will be an opportunity during this workshop for parents and carers to ask questions.
Behaviour and Boundary setting Thursday 30 Sep 1pm - 2pm	A workshop that aims to help with understanding your child's behaviour in relation to their age and stage of development and how to introduce boundaries and positive discipline, using empathy and praise. There will be an opportunity during this workshop for parents and carers to ask questions.
Communication and Language part 1 Friday 15 Oct, 1pm - 2pm	This workshop looks at speech and language development, how to support your children's development, developing listening and attention skills and the importance of interaction and play. There will be an opportunity during this workshop for parents and carers to ask questions
Communication and Language part 2 Friday 22 Oct 1pm - 2pm	This workshop looks at speech and language development, understanding words and sentences, using words and building sentences. There will be an opportunity during this workshop for parents and carers to ask questions.
Oral Health Thursday 28 Oct 1pm - 2pm	A workshop run by Ghali, our Oral Health promotor, to help give you knowledge and ideas on how to make healthier choices for your children and family.
