Home learning: Memory box- Who am I?

This half term we are looking at memory box in our history lessons and we would like you to spend time with your child reflecting on their memories, looking at their own past and producing something to share with the class.

This could be:

Sharing pictures	Recreating a memory	Interview a family
	(acting it out)	member or someone special about their favourite memory.
Choose objects from	Create a family tree.	Performing a poem
their memory box		or song.
that represent their identity.

Or any way to show and share the special memory.

Celebration of learning event will be Monday 10nd February at 2:30-3:30 in the Year 1 classroom.
