

Over the holiday, try and complete as many reading and writing challenges as possible. Aim to get 30 points. We would love to see you complete a bronze, silver and gold task, reading a variety of books in different styles & writing some of your own work too! There are some reading suggestions from your teachers below, and these are all available for you in the school library from September!

| Bronze: 2 point each | Silver: 5 points each | Gold: 10 points each |
|--|--|--|
| Read a graphic story / manga novel & draw your own character Read an article about a footballer or music star & create a profile for them. Follow instructions to make an origami shape. Bring this in to your first week. Read a fairy tale & draw a front cover for it. Read a Roald Dahl book & create a movie poster to advertise it. Read your favourite musician's latest song lyrics. Can you illustrate them? Watch a movie which has been made from a book. Create a Spotify playlist of 10 songs for a character in a book you have read. Read a comic book & draw your own cartoon character Write a biography or fact file about yourself – bring this to your first week at William Perkin. | Read a newspaper article & write a short summary of it Read a book set in a different country & find out some facts about where it is set. Read a mystery story & create a story board to reveal the clues. Read a biography & create a profile for the person. Read a book with over 100 pages Read your favourite musician's latest song lyrics. Can you reuse one of their lines and write your own song or rap? Read and follow a recipe. Take photos of each step. Write a short story featuring your favourite character from a video game or TV show. Read a short story & illustrate it. Write a story, under 100 words, about an ancient adventure. | Read a book which has been made into a film – which is better? Write out your reasons Read a book which has been made into a Netflix series – which is better? Write out your reasons Read a book written in verse (as a poem) and then write a poem of your own (e.g. an acrostic using your name or your new form group) Read a fantasy book & draw one of the settings Read a poem & create your own black out poetry. |

Your teachers' favourite verse (poetry) books:

'One' by Sarah Crossan
 'The Crossover' by Kwame Alexander

Excellent movies made from books:

Divergent
 The Hunger Games
 The Princess Diaries

Our favourite biographies

'Smile' by Raina Telgemeier
 'Mary's Monster' by Lita Judge
 'I am Malala' by Malala Yousafzai

Your teachers' favourite singer songwriters:

Ed Sheeran
 Emeli Sande
 Beyonce

Books set around the world:

'No Ballet Shoes in Syria' by Catherine Bruton
 'Song Walker' by Zillah Bethell

Your teachers' favourite poets:

Manjeet Mann
 Sarah Crossan
 George the Poet
 Caleb Femi