

PSHE

Y3 Knowledge Organiser – Being Me in My World

Year 3 - Being Me in My World

Knowledge

What should I already know?

Know everyone experiences a range of emotions and there are ways to manage these.

Know the different responsibilities and their importance.

Know the British Value of Mutual respect and tolerance.

Know the rewards and consequences within class.

What do I need to know? – Key Knowledge

Know who to ask for support when I face challenges.

Know the qualities of a good school.

Know the British Value Rule of Law.

Know we always have a choice.

Know the importance of making responsible choices.

Know people can see things from different perspectives.

P4C enquiries

P4C enquiries are based on the needs of the cohort to share ideas in a safe and respected environment. Possible enquiry questions:

- What would it be like to have no rules?
- What is the dream school?
- Should rules apply to everyone?

Tier Vocabulary

Tier 1
Feelings, proud, positive, negative choices, dream, nightmare, school, important, rewards, consequences, different, actions

Tier 2
Emotions Goals
Challenges Support
Personal Situation

Tier 3
Value Rule of Law
Responsible Role
Perspective

Skills

Expected Standard

- Identify feelings of value.
- Set personal goals.
- Identify a support network in and out of school.
- Make responsible choices.
- Take on a role in group.
- Try to see situations from other perspective

Greater Depth

A child working at greater depth should be able to talk about their own and others achievement with value and pride. Children should be able to identify the best strategies and people in their support network to talk to if they were facing a challenge and know the qualities that make an environment positive. Children will be able to see a range of situations from different perspectives and say how these actions could affect others.

British Values and the Protected Characteristics

Children will develop a sense of morality and be taught the basic concepts of the British Values. Children will focus on rule of law and how this has positive effects within the classroom and in the wider community.