Headteacher's Message

It has been a busy week in school. The children are back into the routine of learning at school, with some wonderful work being produced. I know the children are proud and will look forward to sharing this over the coming term.

Today the children observed a minute silence on Remembrance Day. The children were impeccable throughout the minute silence.

It is a busy time of year, and we are already thinking about the 'C' word. Christmas will soon be here, so all the dates for the nativity and church services are in the diary section.

Year 1 and 2 parents, you are welcome just to turn up to either of the church services.

Year R parents, more information will be sent to you about the nativity soon.
