

Year 1 and 2: Indian Spice Knowledge Mats

Subject Specific Vocabulary Dozen

city	A place in which people live that is larger or more important than a town
town	A place in which people live that is larger or more important than a village
village	A place smaller than a town
continent	One of the great divisions of land on the globe
Asia	Largest continent
weather	Measurement of heat or cold, wetness or dryness, calm or storm, clearness or cloudiness
Taj Mahal	Special building in India
monsoon	Rainfall that is associated with the monsoon season
vegetation	Plants that grow in a particular area
New Delhi	Capital city of India
Agra	City on the banks of the Yamuna river
Indian Ocean	One of the world's 5 seas

Key questions

- Where is India in the world?
- What is the climate of India like?
- What is it like to live in a village in India?
- How does it differ from living in Wootton Wawen?
- What food is grown in India?
- Why was the Taj Mahal built?
- Why is Mother Theresa famous?

A map of India

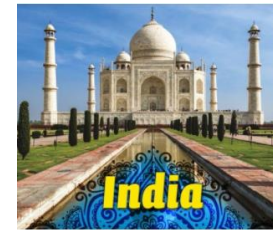

The flag of India

The Taj Mahal

Exciting Books

Sticky Knowledge about Indian Spice topic?

- There are seven continents. They are: Asia, Africa, Europe, North America, South America, Australia and Antarctica.
- India is a country within the continent of Asia. The UK is in Europe.
- The climate in India is tropical but because it is so much bigger than the U.K it has 6 different climate zones. This means the weather can be very different across India on the same day.
- The capital city of India is New Delhi and the capital city of the UK is London.
- There are great variations in the way people in India live.
- Nearly half of the population in India work in farming.
- Most Indian food is spicy
- The Taj Mahal is a famous landmark in India. It is located in the city of Agra. It is not a temple but a tomb.

