Balanced argument

Today you will be writing 2 paragraphs of your balanced argument.

Your first paragraph needs to describe what the argument is and why it is a good debate/argument to have.

For example

This piece of writing will debate which Ancient Greek civilization is better - Sparta or Athens. Luckily, both cities have fantastic, enthralling positives that will be discussed in detail. Some believe that Spartans are the superior race ; others think Athenians were more important as they invented things we still use today.

Then

Move onto your second paragraph describing either the positives of Sparta or Athens.

Remember to use all the points you have research backed up with evidence.

Try to add sentence types where you can

Don't worry about dialogue or 4A sentences it's not that type of writing - more of a formal piece

Make sure you use:

- extra information
- fronted adverbials
- some ; others
- de : de
- conjunctions
