

Factor Pairs

Factors are numbers that multiply with another number to make a product. For example, 2 and 3 are factors of 6 because, when multiplied together, they make 6.

Can you find the factors to the following numbers?

A
1. 6
2. 8
3. 10
4. 15
5. 25
6. 50

B
1. 12
2. 18
3. 21
4. 24
5. 35
6. 48
7. 56
8. 66

C
1. 45
2. 72
3. 81
4. 93
5. 102
6. 121
7. 240
8. 276

Challenge - True or False?

All numbers have at least two factors.

Use the stem sentence below to help you.

Sophie's statement is _____ because _____.

Note to Parents:

Children should understand the ABC format of the sheet as they use this regularly in school. However, if you do have any queries, please get in touch via Class Dojo.