

"Please find us the Sun – it has gone from the sky.
It's vanished completely; we just don't know why."
"OK," agrees Hal with a nod of his head,
"I'll track down the Sun in my space-travelling bed!"

"What's that up ahead?"

Hal squints hard as he sees

A shape that is pale, round, and looks like a cheese!

There are craters and mountains and dust
that is grey;

Could this be the Sun that we see in the day?

"No way!" chuckles Hal with a shake of his head,
"I know what that is!" and he stands on his bed.
"There's just no mistaking: that sphere is the moon!
I see it each night from my bed in my room!"

"We must find the Sun!" Hal commands with a jump,
"Before we go straight back to Earth with a bump!
I must not give up – it's important to try.
I'll keep up my quest for the Sun in the sky."
