

The Ant and the Grasshopper

One summer's day, a grasshopper was relaxing in a field, eating as much grass as he could. When his tummy was full, he began to play some music. He hopped about, playing happily.

Slowly, an ant walked by, carrying some corn.

"Come and sing with me!" called the grasshopper. "No," replied the ant. "I am busy collecting food to prepare for the winter."

"There's no need for that! Don't worry about the winter!" said the grasshopper.

"We have lots of food and it is sunny today."

But the ant shook his head and went on his way. He carried on collecting food all day, walking slowly past the grasshopper with his corn.

"What a silly ant!" said the grasshopper. "He should worry about winter when it is winter!"

When winter finally came and the snow was on the ground, the grasshopper had no food. The hardworking ant and his family had plenty to eat.

"Please can I have some of your food?" said the grasshopper. "No!" shouted the ant. "You said I was silly!"

So, the grasshopper was hungry all winter. He learnt a very hard lesson.

Work hard today to get ready for tomorrow.
