

Year 3	PSHCE	Theme: Families and Committed Relationships
Enquiry Question: What does the word 'family' mean to you? commitment	Dedicated to a cause or activity.	For this half term, our PSHCE topic will be focused on different types of committed relationships.  Children will learn the characteristics of healthy family life, commitment to each other, protection and care for children and other family members, the importance of sharing time together and sharing each other's lives. They will learn how to recognise if family relationships are making them feel unhappy and how to seek help or advice from others if needed. Children will recognise changes that can affect families and explore what happens when parents separate.	Our lessons will focus on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Commitment and marriage • All change! • Family changes when parents separate safe	Protected from or not exposed to danger or risk.
secure	Settled, secure and certain to remain safe.
trust	Firm belief in the reliability, truth or ability of someone.
relationship	The way in which two people or more are connected.
marriage	A formally recognised union of two people.
change	To alter, modify or make someone / something different.
affect	Have an effect on or make a difference to.
loss	The fact or process of losing something or someone.
separation	The action or state of moving or being moved apart.
divorce	The formal, legal ending to a marriage between two people.
Can you think of any other important words linked to 'family' or 'relationships'? 			Golden Rules <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ We are gentle. ✓ We are kind and helpful. ✓ We listen. ✓ We are honest. ✓ We work hard. ✓ We look after property.