

Amphibian and Insect Lifecycles

frog

butterfly

Amphibian and Insect Lifecycles

dragonfly

The female lays fertilised eggs in or near _____.

The fully grown nymph crawls out of the _____ up the stem of a plant. It sheds its _____ and emerges as a dragonfly. It will find a mate and _____.

The eggs

newt

The female lays _____ eggs in water.

The young newts

After 2 or 3 weeks, tadpoles hatch from the eggs. They eat _____ and small insects and _____ through gills.

The tadpoles grow _____ legs, then back legs. They develop lungs to breathe. They look like small _____.