

Yarm Primary

Reception

Enquiry Question: Do all traditional tales look the same?

Subject Specific Vocabulary		Key Vocabulary	Sticky Knowledge about traditional tales
Traditional Tale	A traditional tale is a story that has been told and re-told for many years, and becomes a story that almost everyone knows.	Jack and the Beanstalk Gingerbread man Little Red Riding Hood The Three Little Pigs 3 Billy Goats Gruff	Charles Perrault, the father of the fairy tale, was born on January 12, 1628. His stories included Little Red Riding Hood, Cinderella and Sleeping Beauty.
Non fiction	Non fiction Writing that is about real events and facts, rather than stories that have been invented.		Over 200 years ago in Germany, the Brothers Grimm wrote down the very first traditional tales. They heard them from storytellers all over Europe.
Fiction	Fiction The type of book or story that is written about imaginary characters and events and not based on real people and facts.		The first play of Jack And The Beanstalk was produced by David Garrick in 1773 at Drury Lane, taking its theme from an 19th century fairy tale.
Character	A person or animal in a story.
Setting	Where a story takes place.

Build a maze for your chosen character and direct it around the maze using the correct positional language.

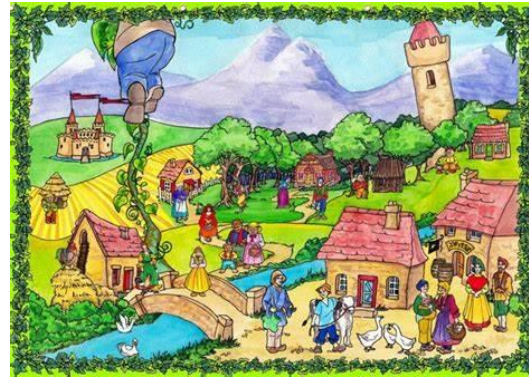

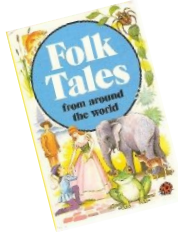

Plant seeds of your choice and complete a dairy entry of the seeds journey.

Create a collage of your favourite character.

With help from an adult use the internet to research about Traditional tales from around the world.

Write a description of the character you choose to create in the activity above.

Think about the '3 Little Pigs' story - go on a material hunt around your garden and decide which materials you would chose to build your very own house.

Create a wanted poster for the Wolf in Red Riding Hood -think of words to describe him and don't forget to add lots of detail so people know what he looks like!

Read the 'Gingerbread Man' think about the ending - how would you change it? Re write the ending and make it your very own!

