

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

Subject Specific Vocabulary			Sticky Knowledge
Rules	Something that tells you what is allowed or not allowed.	In the spring term we will be carrying on our work on kindness and how to be a good friend. We will also work on sharing, taking turns, following rules and being polite. We have included some information that you may like to share with your child as well as some suggested activities. Have fun!	Everyone needs to follow rules. Even grown ups!
Taking Turns	To do something one after another in order to share.		It is important to obey rules and listen carefully to keep us and everyone safe.
Manners	Polite or good social behaviour		You can take turns when playing games or doing chores!
Polite	Behaviour that is respectful and considerate.
		Brain Teaser.....
Sharing	To give or receive part of something or to join in with others.	What do you think these children are doing? 	Using your manners means you need to be polite and to say please and thankyou!
Friend	A person that you are fond of and shows kindness towards.		A person can have lots of different friends!
Kind	Being gentle, caring and thoughtful.
Trust	To believe and rely on someone.
			A true friend is trustworthy, supportive, listens to you, and shows kindness.

Play a game with a grown up / brothers / sisters / friends.
Remember to take turns!

Do you have any rules for your home? Do you remember what they are?

Can you remember to be polite?
Remember to use your manners
and say please and thank you!

Are you good at sharing? Think about something you could share.
Can you share some sweets with your brother or sister? Can you share some biscuits you have made between your family? Or can you share your toys and let someone else play?

PSED Activities
You may want to choose a couple of the activities to complete.

How many friends do you have?
Can you draw a picture of them
all? How many can you count?

Do you remember what our Golden Rules are at school? Can you tell a grown up what they are?

Can you draw a picture of something you did, or somewhere
you went with a friend?

Can you do something kind for someone? You could help them to do a job or say something to make them feel happy!

