

Amir says 0.3 is less than 12% and  $\frac{4}{5}$  because 3 is less than 12 and 4.

Explain why Amir is wrong.

How many different fractions can you make that are greater than  $\frac{1}{2}$  using the digit cards?

How many of these fractions can you convert into decimals and percentages?