

Their, there or they're?

Grammar Guru - Handy Hints!

There is... there was... there were

If it belongs to someone or something use their, e.g. their coat, their car, their toys, their house.

They're is a shortened version of 'they are'. Always read out the sentence as if it reads 'they are' and see if it makes sense!

1. If I only knew name, if I could talk to them, then I might be able to find out more.
2. are many different types of tree.
3. going to Spain on Thursday 31st July 2021.
4. Although it is cold, I would like to go to caravan for the weekend.
5. "..... my shoes," said the boy frantically as he tried to grab them.
6. "..... is a squirrel in that tree!" shouted the girl impatiently.
7. As..... dog got wet in the rain, it had to dry off inside.
8. were several sounds coming from the ominous forest.

Challenge – Can you create three sentences of your own that include speech, and an 'although'. OR can you create a poster to explain this rule to others?
