

Yarm Primary School

Year 4

PSHCE

Rights and Responsibilities

How can we be caring and responsible?

Key Vocabulary

Sticky Knowledge

Golden Rules

rights	A moral or legal entitlement to something.
responsibilities	Something that you are required to do.
respect	A positive feeling towards someone due to their qualities.
opportunities	The possibility to do something.
roles	Part played by a person in a certain situation.
entitled	Believing that you deserve special treatment.
agreement	A meeting of opinion.
convention	An agreement between states/countries through a meeting/conference.
United Nations	Organisation aimed at promoting peace and security.

- We should show respect to others and expect to be treated similarly.
- Our rights come with responsibilities.
- We have enshrined and entitled rights and these rights protect us and ensure that we are safe.
- Stable, caring relationships are at the heart of happy families and are important for children's security.

We will learn how to describe rights and how they come with responsibilities. We will be able to explain some of the consequences that may follow when not accepting responsibility. We will be able to recall some of the UN rights and why these are important in keeping us safe. Different roles and responsibilities within families will be explored and we will be learning how sharing these can support happy family relationships.

- We are kind and gentle.
- We are kind and helpful.
- We listen.
- We are honest.
- We work hard.
- We look after property.

