

Yarm Primary

Year 1

Enquiry Question: Why are families special?

Subject Specific Vocabulary			Sticky Knowledge
family	Network of people who support you.	For the following half term, our PSHCE topic will be around family and committed relationships. We will explore how special people care for us and how we keep safe.	I can name special people in my life and why they are important to me.
important	Something that has serious meaning or worth diversity	People may be different in many ways, including race or ethnicity age, disabilities, language, culture, appearance or religion.
similarities	A similar feature or aspect differences	A point or way in which people or things are different.		I can understand that all families are different.
happy	Feeling or showing joy.
superhero	A very heroic person.		I can understand who looks after us in the world.
special	Someone or something that is distinctive or different from others.
Commitment	A promise to do or give something.
Together	With another person or people.
			I can understand what makes the recipe for a happy family.