

Year 5

Enquiry Question: What do families and 'committed relationships' look like?

Subject Specific Vocabulary			Sticky Knowledge
Relationships	The way in which two or more people are connected,	For the following half term, our PSHCE topic will be around our Families and Committed Relationships. We will get to know what different families may look like, the values of healthy relationships and discuss your personal beliefs around committed relationships. 	Not all families are the same - we all have different ideas of what 'family' looks like.
Safe	Protected from or not exposed to danger or risk.		Friendships and committed relationships have several characteristics such as trust and respect - can you think of any more?
Healthy	When describing relationships, healthy refers to the strength and emotional state of a relationship.		Marriage is the legal bond between two people - what do you think makes a healthy marriage?
Unhealthy	When describing relationships, unhealthy refers to the lack of strength and balance in a relationship.
Diversity	The practice or quality of including or involving people from a range of different social and ethnic backgrounds, genders, and sexual orientations.
Commitment	The state or quality of being dedicated to a cause or being.		