Mutual Respect

What is Mutual Respect?

Respect is the act of showing obedience, politeness and consideration towards someone. But what is mutual respect? Mutual respect is the act of demonstrating care, love attention and valuing people no matter who they are and where they are from without any criticism or complaint. Treating people the way you would like to be treated and giving people reasons to smile.

Why is this British Value relevant in school?

Amazingly, in Zouch we show mutual respect by: making all visitors feel welcome in our amazing school. We work together as a team to help one another and we do that by showing our values.
