

British Values

Tolerance

by Bianca and Faith

What is Tolerance?

Tolerance is when we respect others for who they are. This includes when people are different to ourselves and may include gender, age, race and religion.

Why is this British Value relevant in school?

Tolerance is relevant to school because we are all different. In our school, members of different faiths or cultures are encouraged to share their knowledge. Everyone is welcome in our school and people will be kind and helpful to them if they need it.
