

The value of FRIENDSHIP

Anjali thinks that friendship is the tolerance, trust and courtesy displayed between two or more people. A friend doesn't necessarily need to be the one you've known longest, just the one who is always there for you.

Lilly thinks that making up and remembering the good times whenever you fall out at school is helpful.

Alfie W says that at Zouch I don't think anyone doesn't have a friend because if someone is alone we go up to them and have a conversation with them.
