

The value of HAPPINESS

Skye thinks that happiness is when you show a positive emotion like a facial expression, a smile, use kind words or even show a specific action.

At Zouch we all try to show happiness and not negative emotions as it is far more pleasant to get educated in a positive school.

Harvey says that a smile to show you're happy is infectious so, good to give and show the value of happiness.

Kian and Todd thought that happiness means you spread joy around.
