

The value of RESPECT

Beau thinks that respect is an act of kindness, for example, when we respect the fallen soldiers who have fought for us. Or you may respect others or even God. It even means when you respect yourself as well as others.

At Zouch we use respect by listening to the teachers and TAs during lessons and by having a positive mind-set. Everyone in our school shows respect at every chance they get.