

The value of TRUST

Emily thinks that trust is a skill you use in your everyday life towards your peers and teachers. It takes time to trust people but this can be gained overtime.

An example of using the value of trust at Zouch is when we trust our teachers and TAs during a fire alarm. Although it is frightening, we have to show trust and listen carefully to the adult who is guiding us so they can keep us all safe.